

The Holiday Spirit

Three local retailers dish on the great gifts they're stocking- and their favorite part of spending the festive season in Philadelphia. BY JESSIE LANE

DANUTA MIELOCH

Owner, Rescue Rittenhouse Spa
255 S. 17th St. 215-772-2766

PHILADELPHIA STYLE: What new products are you excited about debuting this holiday season?

DANUTA MIELOCH: We will be debuting Valmont's new foundation cream makeup, L'Elixer des Glaciers Teint Precieux Votre Visage ($240). This cream is available in four shades and has visible lifting effects for a perfect complexion. At Rescue Rittenhouse we know women want the appearance of flawless, tight skin, and we have found it with this product. Valmont has created a prestigious alliance between makeup and antiaging skincare.

PS: What is your favorite part of the season at Rescue Rittenhouse?

DM: Our favorite part of the holidays is our gift certificate sales. When someone purchases a gift certificate, it can be used for services, products and even gratuity. When men come in, we try to make them comfortable by assisting them in all aspects of the sale and explaining [everything] to them.

PS: What promotions or special gift items will be available?

DM: We will be selling our Private Label Rescue candle ($18); it's a really nice addition to a gift certificate. We will also have my signature Bio-lift Facial, which incorporates noninvasive electrical currents and custom-blended serums that leave the skin looking and feeling tighter and smoother. This can be combined with our Swedish massage for only $200.

ABOVE: Rescue Rittenhouse
RIGHT: Private Label Rescue candle

PHILADELPHIA STYLE

THE HOLIDAY GIFT GUIDE

FASHIONABLE FINDS FROM CENTER CITY AND THE MAIN LINE

FOX 29'S MIKE JERRICK
HIP-HOP INSIDER SHAWN GEE
LIFESTYLE GURU HOPE COHEN

UGLY BETTY WUNDERKIND MARK INDELICATO